

■ Kridha Finds a Special Stone

One sunny day, Kridha was playing outside with her friends. She was running around and laughing when she stumbled upon a shiny stone. It was so sparkly and pretty that Kridha felt like it belonged to her. She picked it up and put it in her pocket, thinking it would be the perfect addition to her treasure collection.

■ Kridha's Dilemma

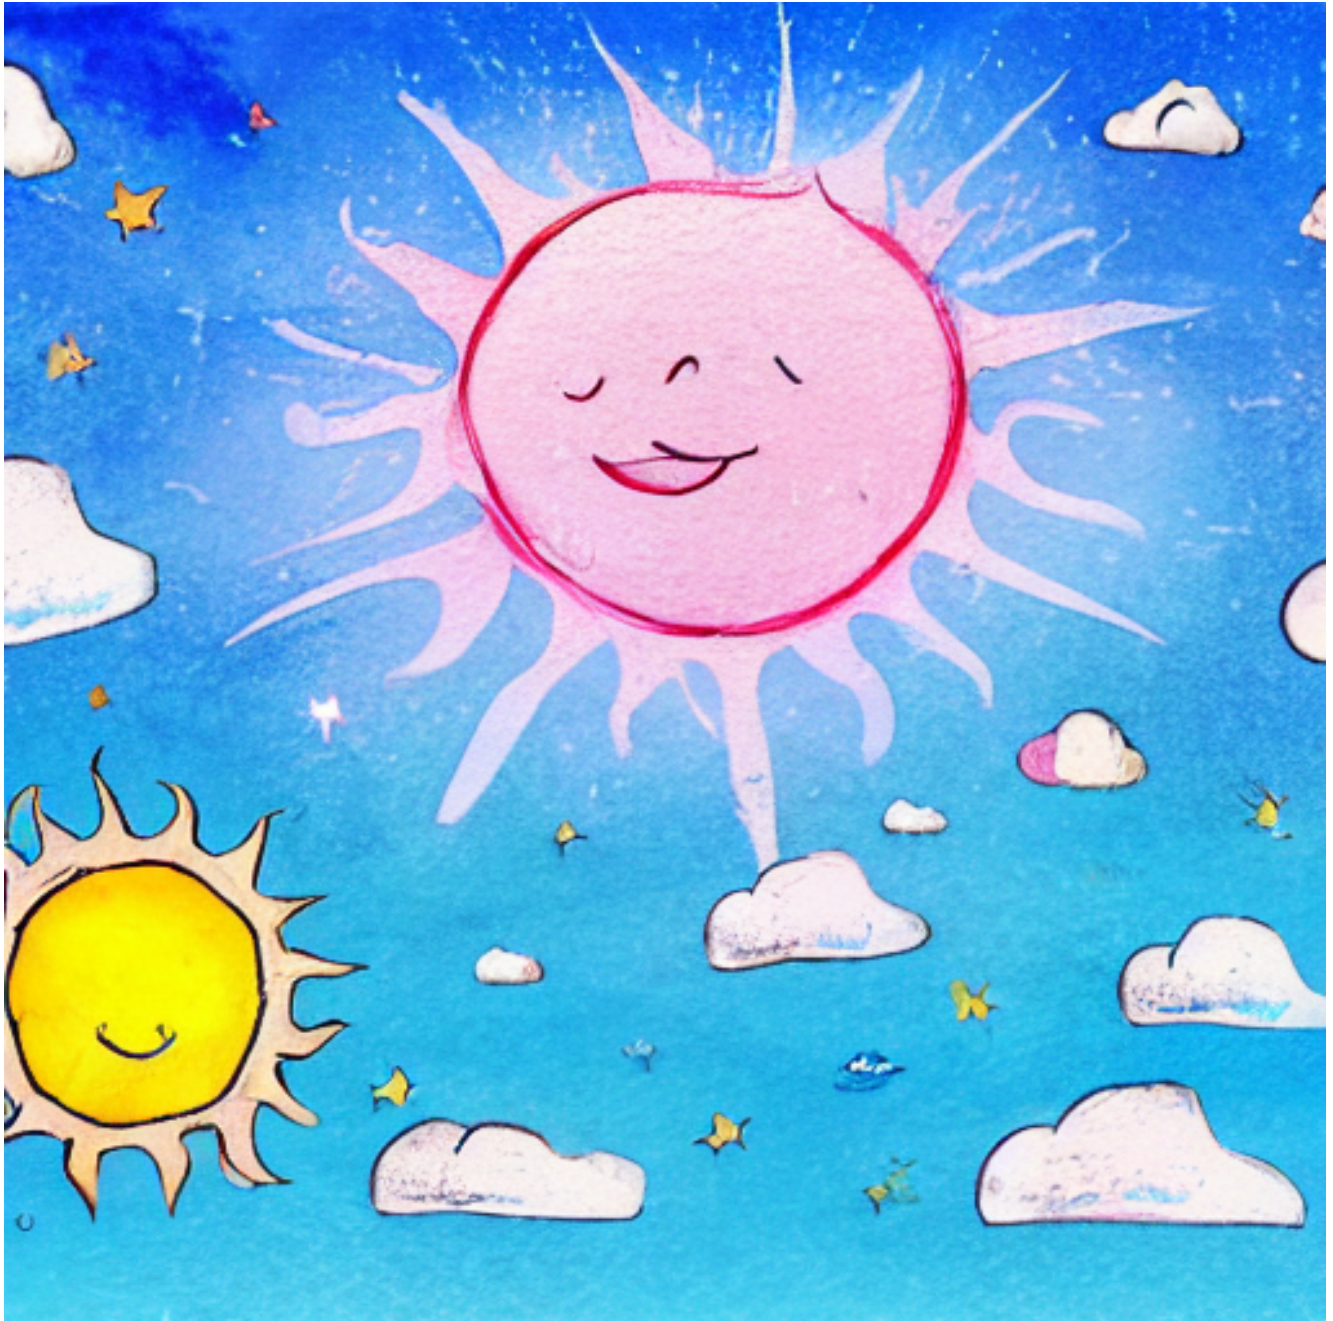

But then Kridha saw her friend, Rohan, coming towards her. He loved collecting shiny things too! When he saw the stone in Kridha's pocket, his eyes widened with excitement. 'That's my favorite stone!' he exclaimed. Kridha felt a pang of guilt in her heart. She had found the stone first, but she didn't want to hurt Rohan's feelings. Should she tell him the truth or keep quiet?

■ Kridha Makes the Right Choice

Kridha decided to be honest and told Rohan that she had found the stone. She showed it to him and apologized for not telling him sooner. Rohan's face lit up with a big smile. 'Thank you, Kridha! I was worried I had lost my favorite stone forever!' He gave her a big hug and they became even better friends. From then on, whenever Kridha found something that didn't belong to her, she would remember this lesson: honesty is always the best choice.

Scene 1

Scene 2

Scene 3

